Understanding, applying and experiencing Participatory Action Research (PAR): A cross-disciplinary conversation

7th July, 15.00-18.15 (CET)

PROGRAMME

15.00 – 15.10 Welcome: Marija Bartl (University of Amsterdam)

15.10 – 16.30 Panel 1

Moderator: Kinanya Pijl

Kristin Kalsem, Emily Houh (University of Cincinati): 'Legal Participatory Action Research: In Theory and Practice'

Vladimir Bogoeski, Nena van der Horst (University of Amsterdam): 'Private law and socio-ecological transformation: understanding the private law of non-extractive economic practices through PAR'

Joris Hoekstra, Marja Elsinga (Delft University of Technology): 'Young people's voices at the centre of youth policy. PAR and policy co-creation in the H2020 UPLIFT Project'

Discussion

16.30 – 16.40 Break

16.40 – 18.00 Panel 2

Moderator: Amy Lazell

Lorenzo Cotula (International Institute for Environment and Development, Edinburgh): 'Collaborative legal empowerment in the context of large-scale investments in the Global South'

Alice Haugh (Space&Matter, Co-operate initiative): 'Action-research in the city: Community Land Trusts as Doughnut developers'

Presentation 6: tbc

Discussion

18.00 – 18.15 Closing Remarks and Future Plans